Presenters:

Dr. Marilyn Weitzel, an adjunct instructor at Indiana Wesleyan University, has taught and practiced pediatric nursing for many years. She has volunteered at Cleveland Pregnancy Center in the prayer line, and as a clinic nurse and general helper. Marilyn is currently involved in a Stephen Ministry and a ministry for the developmentally delayed. She is open for opportunities wherever God leads.

Dr. Joan Thoman teaches at Cleveland State University where she is faculty advisor for NCF. She uses her varied acute and long term care experiences to assist senior students with NCLEX preparation and with transitioning to the role of registered nurse. Her clinical and research interests center around diabetes and self-management.

Cost:

Fees covering seminar, handouts, and snack can be found on the registration form on the reverse side. Onsite parking is free.

Online registration and payment are available at NCFspiritualcare.eventbrite.com for an additional fee.
