

What Sets You Apart?

What is the difference between a Christian nurse and any other nurse? After all, you are taught the same skills in nursing school. We look to the book of Colossians for insights on how followers of Jesus are unique.

Read Colossians 3:1-17, 22-24:

¹ Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. ² Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. ³ For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God. ⁴ When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.

⁵ Put to death, therefore, whatever belongs to your earthly nature: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires and greed, which is idolatry. ⁶ Because of these, the wrath of God is coming. ⁷ You used to walk in these ways, in the life you once lived. ⁸ But now you must also rid yourselves of all such things as these: anger, rage, malice, slander, and filthy language from your lips. ⁹ Do not lie to each other, since you have taken off your old self with its practices ¹⁰ and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge in the image of its Creator. ¹¹ Here there is no Gentile or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free, but Christ is all, and is in all.

¹² Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. ¹³ Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. ¹⁴ And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

¹⁵ Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful. ¹⁶ Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts. ¹⁷ And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

For discussion and reflection:

1. Circle the instructions given to believers in this passage. Underline the action verbs to each command. Which directives stand out to you personally?
2. Looking at the commands in this passage, how does God want his people to be different in the areas of communication, teamwork, work ethic, attitude and compassion for others?
3. According to this passage, what makes a Christian nurse different than any other nurse? What steps can you take to reflect the peace of Christ's rule in your heart?

Take time to pray about this. Thank God for all he has done to transform your life. Ask the Holy Spirit to continue to transform you into the image of God.
